

United Methodist
Women

WHY JOIN?

What does membership mean?

It means joining a global community of women – nearly 800,000 strong- who are committed to the same purpose and have a passion to change the world around them.

Any woman who commits herself to the Purpose of UMW and to engage in mission, study, personal growth and social action can join. You don't have to be a United Methodist or meet an age requirement to be a member.

How do I join?

It's easy to become a member of United Methodist Women, Just talk to someone you know who is already a member. If you don't know a member contact the FUMC office and they will help you.

Being a member will give you the opportunity to do things you never thought about doing.

What do United Methodist Women do?

Members of UMW are committed to spiritual growth, giving to mission, social justice and living out their faith. They meet regularly for prayer, study, social action and mission engagement- they also get together just to have fun.

Many United Methodist Women members take on leadership roles at one time or another. Members might find themselves serving on behalf of the organization at local district, conference, jurisdictional or national levels at some point.